

INSISTER SPACE

STATUTES

§1 NAME

The name of the organisation is INSISTER SPACE.

§2 SEAT

INSISTER SPACE is seated in Stockholm County.

§3 FORM

INSISTER SPACE shall be run as a non-profit organisation.

§4 PURPOSE AND ACTIVITY

INSISTER SPACE is a choreographic proposal for an intersectional and feminist organisation for performance artists identifying as women, trans and non-binary. INSISTER SPACE's purpose is to be a space for support, solidarity and working-possibilities.

By supporting its members the organisation aims to:

- Make space for performance artists identifying as women, trans and non-binary
- Be a platform for collegial cooperation
- Replace competition with sisterhood
- Share practical knowledge and conditions for working as a performance artist
- Be a space for work by offering studio and office space
- Be a context for individual artists
- Organise, administrate and market members' initiatives, works and projects.

§5 FINANCIAL YEAR

INSISTER SPACE financial year runs from January 1st to December 31st.

The activity year intends the period between two following regular annual meetings.

§6 MEMBERSHIP AND MEMBERSHIP FEE

Person supporting INSISTER SPACE's statute and choreographic proposal and wishes to work accordingly is welcome as member in the organisation.

Membership is granted after paying membership fee set by the annual meeting.

Membership runs per calendar year.

Member can also apply for membership for free.

§7 RESIGNATION

Member can at any point request resignation by contacting membership responsible of the board. Received membership fee will not be refunded.

§8 EXCLUSION

Member actively working against INSISTER SPACE's statute or choreographic proposal can be excluded from the organisation by the board with $\frac{3}{4}$ majority.

Re-entry can be applied from the board earliest one year after exclusion.

§9 THE BOARD

The board is the organisation's highest decisive organ between the annual meetings and is elected by the annual meeting. A board consisting of at least five members manages the organisation's matters. The annual meeting elects two board members as conveners for a mandate of one year. Remaining members are elected for a mandate of two years and resign alternately every second year.

The board is decisive when a majority of its members are present.

Board meetings shall be held regularly and be called by the conveners latest two days prior to the meeting.

Membership in the organisation is required to be elected board member.

§10 DECISION

All meetings shall be noticed one week prior in order to be decisive, with the exception of the annual meeting and extra annual meeting (see §15).

§11 MINUTES

Minutes shall be taken at all board meetings, general meetings and annual meetings. All minutes shall be accessible for members and can be required from the board via email.

§12 AUDIT

Two auditors elected by the annual meeting audit the board's administration and finances. Both auditors have a personal deputy, all elected for a two-year mandate resigning alternately every second year.

The auditors must have access to the organisation's accounts and minutes.

§13 ELECTION COMMITTEE

The election committee prepares the election for the board, auditors and new election committee. The election committee consists of two or three members. Members of the election committee can not be board members.

§14 GENERAL MEETINGS

Recurrent general meetings shall be kept and are noticed by the conveners. A meeting is decisive when noticed the latest one week prior via email.

All members remain the right to suggest an extra general meeting to the board.

§15 ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting is the highest decisive organ of the organisation. All members remain the rights to attend, speak, propose and vote at the annual meeting.

The annual meeting shall be noticed accordingly to the statute and be held before the end of February each year.

Extra annual meeting shall be held if at least half the board or a tenth of the members find reason. All members remain the right to suggest an extra annual meeting to the board.

The annual meeting is decisive when noticed at least two weeks prior via email. The notice must contain date, place, time, proposition stop, nomination deadline, motion deadline and agenda. Documents shall be available for members latest one week prior to the annual meeting. Minutes from the meeting shall be available to members latest two weeks after the meeting.

An extra annual meeting is only decisive in matters announced in the notice.

The annual meeting treats:

1. Opening of meeting
2. Election of chair for the meeting
3. Election of secretary for the meeting
4. Election of two adjusters to assist the chair in signing the protocol
5. Setting of register
6. Meeting's statutory publication
7. Setting of agenda
8. Treating the board's activity and financial reports
9. Audit report
10. Board discharge
11. Managing propositions and motions
12. Setting of membership fee for coming activity year
13. Election board members:
 - 2 conveners and (at least) 3 board members
14. Election of 2 auditors and 2 deputies
15. Election of election committee:
 - 2-3 members of which 1 is made convener
16. Any other business
17. Closing of meeting

§16 SIGNING COMPANY

The board elects two board members to sign the firm separately.

The board remains the authority to decide order of delegation for the organisation's economy.

§17 ALTERATION OF STATUTE

This statute is changed by appeal seconded by 2/3 of the votes at an ordinary annual meeting or by simple majority at two following annual meetings. Running editorial changes are permitted the board. Such changes shall be reported at following annual meeting.

§18 DISSOLUTION

Dissolution can only be effected by vote of 2/3 majority on two following annual meetings with at least three months distance. Remaining financial assets shall be given to an articulately feministic artistic organisation with similar interests. Decision of which shall be made at final annual meeting.
